MONDAY EVE., NOV. 2, 1901.

Brice's Convicts Escape.

A special to the REPUBLICAN Saturday evening, too late for publication, confirmed the report of the burning of the stockade at Briceville and Coal Creek, Tenn., and the escape of the convicts. This is an incident that ought to make such laboring men as have been using the Democratic ticket hang their heads with shame. Indeed it ought to arouse the indignation of that party, noted as it is for supporting, until within the last thirty years, the system of human slavery in competition with free labor. In those days some of the leaders of the Democratic party held that the best way to control labor was to own the laborer, whether that laborer was white or black. The exigencies of war, however, intervened and overthrew the system.

In the same section where labor was performed by slaves a system of prison contract labor was instituted by which gangs of convicts, under guards and bosses, have been worked on public works and mines outside of prison in competition with free labor which sought employment. This labor proved cheaper than free labor and was sought after.

This system is practiced in the Democratic state of Tennessee, and in that state Calvin S. Brice, who lives in New York but was recently elected to the United States Senate from Ohio, owns some coal mines in the towns of Briceville and Coal Creek. This same Calvin S. Brice is chairman of the National Democratic Central Committee. Some three or four months ago the men employed in Brice's mines struck for a better scale of wages, whereupon his managers employed the penitentiary convicts of Tennessee to take the place of the free men who struck. When the strikers threatened to attack the convicts the Democratic Governor sent the militia to protect the penitentiary laborers. This resulted in a crisis which resulted in calling a special session of the legislature of that state, and on promise that the legislature would repeal the law providing for the employment of prison labor in that way, the striking miners were pacified and yielded. The legislature met but could see no reason for repealing the law in the interest of free labor, and the miners and their families were left without work and the food which labor brings.

It seems now that the state of Tennessee has lost its prisoners and Calvin S. Brice, who is trying to put the Democratic party in power, lost his prison laborers by the burning of the stockade at Briceville where they were confined at night. In all 320 escaped.

This bit of history, horrible as it is, is in keeping with the instincts of the Democratic leaders for the past 60 years. While they make loud professions to secure the votes of workmen and have succeeded in deceiving many of them, they have never had a single impulse in the interest of free labor. All this episode needs to complete it as a legitimate Democratic conclusion is that of clothing, go to Ohio and vote the Democratic ticket on Tuesday for the man Brice seeks to elect as governor of that state.

By Fraud.

A Tammany judge in New York City a few days ago naturalized 600 new citizens in five hours, being at the rate of one every half minute. This indicates the methods by which the New York Democracy expect to win the election in that state. In case they win we will hear them dilate on the principles of Jefferson and Jackson as expressed at the polls of New York.

The fact is, as developed by a Democratic senatorial committee appointed to investigate John I. Davenport some years ago, at a time when that individual under the Federal election law, discovered 20,000 fraudulent Democratic votes that it requires fifteen minutes to naturalize a citizen in New York state according to law. At that time a Tammany judge confessed that he had violated the law in the matter of naturalization in the interest of the Democratic party. When that Democratic senatorial committee discovered these facts, true to Democratic instincts, the committee abandoned the investigation and never made a report to the Senate, fearing the truth would injure the Democratic party. The chairman of that committee was Senator Wallace, of Pennsylvania. The Democratic party leaders do not hesitate to commit the most bare-faced frauds where they have the power. They seem to think the end justifies the means.

In a free election in New York, I assert would defeat Flower in that state badly. This it seems, as well as the measure of Democratic consciousness is the limit of Tammany to perpetrate frauds in the interest of Democratic victory, it is impossible to get.

The Mantonmoh could fight. New York Press: The Chilean navy has three battleships whose twelve inch steel armor would be proof against attacks of the new United States steel cruisers, but the Mantonmoh, now in the Brooklyn Navy Yard, has an almost impenetrable armor and might be the middle of the Chilean fleet and sink every one of them without being herself harmed. When ready for action the Mantonmoh's deck is almost level with the water. It is very difficult for hostile gunners even to hit her low, maneuvered armor turret, while the light superstructure that rises above the deck could be entirely shot away without impairing her efficiency as a fighter. Her guns are powerful ten inch rifles, hurling five hundred pound projectiles over a fighting range of seven miles. The navy yard officers and men would like to see the Mantonmoh start for Valparaiso. She could not reach there before December 10 if orders came to start at once.

Ten elections to-morrow in Iowa, Ohio, New York and Massachusetts are of general interest. Governors are to be elected in each of these states. The fight in Ohio is made on National issues. In New York it is the honest people against corruption, as represented by Tammany. In Iowa it is a fight on the part of the Democratic and third party prohibitionists against the Republicans, who favor the present prohibition laws. In Massachusetts the fight is a square partisan fight waged on local and National issues. In all these states there are now Democratic governors.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat: The breaking of the will of Samuel J. Tilden, which had been drawn up by Mr. Tilden himself, furnishes a rather startling illustration of the truth of the proverb that the man who is his own lawyer has a fool for a client. There is a striking example of the irony of fate in the fact that this man, who in his long and conspicuous career as a lawyer and statesman of money which had successfully withstood all legal tests, should fail utterly and absolutely when drawing up his own will.

A grand deal of conjecture has been indulged in concerning the probable events that would follow an attempt on the part of the United States to enforce reparation upon Chile. The most ridiculous of these is the prediction that in case we resorted to force Chile would slip out a gunboat and before we knew it would be bombarding San Francisco or San Diego.

There is a fair prospect now that the telephone girl who calls "Hello, what number," must go. An automatic arrangement which does the work of these girls at the central office has been invented and a company has been organized to manufacture and put them on the market.

Minister Egan seems to be obnoxious to the Democrats and also the Chinese who cannot tolerate him. So long as these conditions exist it may be safely set down that minister Egan will remain at his post unless the Government should endeavor to break off diplomatic relations with Chile.

It is reported that Ex-Gov. Foraker became so much interested in having every Republican in Cincinnati register that he forgot to register himself and will not be able to vote to-morrow. John Sherman registered properly and will cast his ballot.

Some Democratic papers want to know whether Minister Egan is representing Ireland or the United States in Chile, Chile can answer that question. That government seems to be of the opinion that he represents Uncle Sam.

A Mother's Mistake.

Mothers frequently make a mistake in neglecting the Cough of a child. A Fort Wayne, Ind., lady writes: My little daughter, 10 years old, had a severe Cough, but as it was nothing unusual I thought nothing of it, and allowed it to run on for four weeks, when it became so obstinate she began losing flesh. I called on a physician, who treated her three weeks without benefit. A neighbor told me of my trying Ballard's Honeycomb Syrup; it relieved her from the first dose, and she began gaining flesh rapidly; when we had used two bottles her Cough had entirely disappeared. I would not be without it. It does not constitute my children. Ballard's Honeycomb Syrup is free from Opium. It's the most soothing Throat and Lung medicine in the world. Price 50c and $1.00. Sold by Swearingen & Tyler.

How to Succeed.

This is the great problem of life which few satisfactorily solve. Some fail because of poor health, others want of luck, but the majority from deficient grit—want of nerve. They are nervous, irascible, chameleons, easily get the blues and "take the spirits down to the depths of the pit," thus wasting money, time, opportunity and nerve force. There is nothing like the Restorative Nerve, discovered by the late Dr. J. C. Smith, to cure all nervous diseases, no headache, the blues, nervous prostration, sleeplessness, neuritis, St. Vitus dance, fits, and hysteria. Trial bottles and full testimonials free from W. C. TEMPERANCE AT THE COURT HOUSE.

James M. Dunn, of Milwaukee, Wis., who began a series of temperance meetings in the court house yesterday afternoon, was greeted with a large audience.

After the choir and congregation sang "Nearer My God to Thee," Mr. Dunn was introduced to the audience by Miss Gregory, President of the W. C. T. U. He read the 13th chapter of First Corinthians and Rev. Penhalligan offered prayer. D. L. Dunn had charge of the music. He was assisted yesterday afternoon by Mrs. K. Harwood and other prominent singers of the city. The opening of the meetings is truly encouraging. Mr. Dunn said it was the largest first meeting he had had for five years. A number of the ministers were present and some who were unavoidably detained sent regrets. Mr. Dunn's appearance speaks the true gentleman. He has a fine voice and good delivery. He assured the people that these meetings would be neither sectarian nor political; that they were not being run to build up any political party. He said he was used to having the ministers about him and hoped they would always make their way to the front. His first address was received with marked approval. At the close Mr. Dunn presented a pledge to be signed by all who want temperance sentiment revived in Deatur and would work toward that result. Crowds pressed forward to sign until 165 names were written, many falling for want of opportunity to leave their names. Appearances indicate one of the greatest temperance revivals known in Deatur for years. Meetings every night, commencing at 7:30, until further notice. Good music.

Close Call for the Governor.

As the train on the Chicago and Alton road, due at Alton at 9:17 o'clock Saturday evening, approached the station at Wann, four miles south, it ran into an open switch, and the engine and baggage car were derailed and damaged to the extent of perhaps $2,000. By prompt action on the part of the engineer, Sprague, a disastrous wreck was averted. The train consisted of three chair cars, four sleepers, baggage smokes, baggage car, and with 200 passengers. There is no doubt that the accident was the result of a deliberate attempt to wreck the train, as the "Hannover," a local train, had passed all right but a short time previously, and none of the railroad employees had been near the switch subsequently. The switch lights were found to be out. Governor Pifer was on the train, and the theory is advanced at Alton that the attempt was made for the purpose of doing him injury. The train was delayed about five hours.

A Hard Fall.

E. W. Waggoner, when he returned home Saturday night, went out in the kitchen to stop a leakage in the pipe over the stove, through which smoke was escaping. He attempted to get up on a chair, which tipped and threw Mr. Waggoner very heavily to the floor. In falling he struck the back of the chair and sustained a very severe injury, the fourth and fifth ribs on the left side being partly torn from the sternum. Dr. W. B. Hostetter was called and gave the injured man the necessary medical aid. Mr. Waggoner is resting easier to day, but it will be some time before he entirely recovers from the fall.

WALSH TO FACE THE MUSIC.

The Barber Abductor of Tillie May to Go on Trial.

Only civil cases received attention in the circuit court this forenoon, Judge Veil hearing arguments of counsel. Neither case has been decided.

HARBIN WALSH.

The petit juryman began to gather in the court room this afternoon, as did also witnesses in the Walsh abduction case.

Elmer E. Walsh, the barber, is the defendant. He was arrested last summer for the abduction of Tillie May, an unmarried female, for immoral purposes.

He met her one night on her way home from a church meeting, and got her to go out buggy riding with him. They drove south, and after they got beyond the St. Louis bridge Walsh gave Tillie something to drink, which liquid, whatever it was, caused her to sing, laugh and sleep until she arrived near Macon. They then drove back, and the girl was left at the home of a friend near Elwin, Walsh coming to Deatur with the buggy to be arrested when he arrived at the stable.

It developed at the preliminary trial that Walsh had represented himself to be a single man, while at the time of his arrest he had a wife and child in St. Louis. State's Attorney Mills says he has a strong case against Walsh and will see that he is vigorously prosecuted.
